

Title I Parent Involvement Policy

Community High School District 99 maintains programs, activities and procedures for the active involvement of parents and guardians of students receiving services under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Parent Involvement Program

The Superintendent or designee ensures that the parents and guardians of Title I students are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, including the review and improvement of this parental involvement policy. Parents are encouraged to support the curriculum and instruction provided by District 99 in order to help students achieve the Illinois Learning Standards. The Superintendent or designee shall maintain procedures for the continual involvement of parents in reviewing the Title I program. This policy will be distributed to parents and guardians of students receiving educational services through Title I funding. District 99 regulations provide:

- (1) a process for continually involving parents/guardians in the development and implementation of the parental involvement policy;
- (2) a description of how parents and guardians, the school faculty, and students share the responsibility for improved student achievement;
- (3) the means by which the school and parents and guardians will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the Illinois Learning Standards; and
- (4) a description of the method by which the school policy will be distributed to parents and guardians of students receiving services or enrolled in programs under Title I.

Annual Parent Involvement Meeting

The principal or designee shall convene an annual meeting for all parents and guardians of students receiving services, or enrolled in programs, under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. At this meeting, parents and guardians shall be informed of their school's participation in the Title I program and their right to be actively involved in the program. The building principal or designee has established procedures to facilitate this annual meeting and guidelines to develop the meeting's agenda.

To the greatest extent possible, District 99 will provide opportunities for the participation of parents and guardians with limited English proficiency or disabilities in the programs herein identified.
